

I received an email regarding the CBA weakening Indiana's telephone privacy law. As of today, I believe there is not enough protection for the consumer from these banks. I currently receive up to ten calls a day on certain days from Bank One. They are very rude and when I ask them to stop calling, they tell me that there is nothing I can do. This is unacceptable and has to stop. Please do not allow these banks to continue to harass.